New Lenox 122 Foundation Appoints Two Additional Board Members

New Lenox, IL, January 9, 2013: The New Lenox School District 122 Foundation is pleased to announce the appointment of two new members to the Foundation's Board: Courtney Knott and; Kyle Branyik. Their appointments were effective in November and December, 2012 respectively.

Courtney Knott and her husband have three young sons. Courtney is a stay-at-home mom and former educator who contributed countless hours as a member of the Foundation's Event Committee to organize the Inaugural Event entitled "Celebrating Stars of Tomorrow" on September 8, 2012. Kyle Branyik is a former student in District 122 and a graduate of Lincoln-Way Central High School. As a member of Ernst & Young's Assurance practice, Kle has experience with both SEC and private companies. In addition, he participated in not-for-profit government compliance audits. Both Board Members reside in District 122.

The New Lenox School District 122 Foundation is a 501c3 non-profit organization that is comprised of community volunteers. In addition to Mrs. Knott and Mr. Branyik other Board Members are: President Tom Burton; Vice President Nancy Dye; Treasurer Karen Motto; Secretary Tracy Ladd and Board Members Kim Du'Prey and Pam McCauley. Dr. Marianne Cucci serves as the Administrative Liaison.

Volunteers are needed and inquiries are welcome at foundation@nlsd122.org. Please visit the Foundation's website, www.nlsd122foundation.org and "like" the Foundation on Facebook.
