The Foundation raised approximately $3,200 from this fundraiser. The majority of funding is contributed to the E3 Grant Program that is being launched this month. This is the second “Principal for a Day” fundraiser for the Foundation to raise the awareness of the Foundation’s existence to parents and students in District 122. We appreciate those students who participated in the fundraiser and the principals who spread the word about the opportunity.

The New Lenox School District 122 Foundation is a 501c3 non-profit organization that is comprised of community volunteers.
